

Brecknock Sinfonia Trust

Gift Aid Declaration

Brecknock Sinfonia Trust is recognised by HMRC as a charity able to collect Gift Aid from persons who make donations to it. Friends of the Brecknock Sinfonia are Members of the charitable Trust whose subscriptions and any other donations are eligible for Gift Aid.

The Trust can collect Gift Aid on any subscription or donation you have made since 19 May 2019 and on all future subscriptions and donations. In order for this to happen HMRC needs to be able to identify you as a current UK taxpayer and to have confirmation that you have declared that you are content for Gift Aid to be collected on your behalf.

We therefore ask you to complete the form below and to return it to the Trust's Treasurer, Vaughan Bennett.

Please notify the Brecknock Sinfonia Trust if in the future you:

- want to cancel this declaration
- change your name or home address
- no longer pay sufficient tax on your income and/or capital gains

If you pay Income Tax at the higher or additional rate and want to receive the additional tax relief due to you, you must include all your Gift Aid donations on your Self-Assessment tax return or ask HM Revenue and Customs to adjust your tax code. You do not need to notify the Trust.

Brecknock Sinfonia Trust

Gift Aid Declaration Consent Form

I am happy for all gifts of money including Friends' subscriptions and any other donations that I have made to the Friends of Brecknock Sinfonia/the Brecknock Sinfonia Trust since 19 May 2019 and all future gifts of money that I make, to be Gift Aid donations.

I am a UK taxpayer and understand that if I pay less Income Tax & Capital Gains Tax in the current tax year than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all of my donations across all Charities, it is my responsibility to pay any difference.
